Webinar on Challenges in Data Privacy- 14th September

There are many challenges for data privacy legislation within a boundary-less cloud computing and World Wide Web environment. Despite its importance, there is limited research around data privacy law gaps and alignment, and the legal side of the security ecosystem seems to constantly be playing catch-up.

This webinar will discuss the research supported by STRATUS (Security Technologies Returning Accountability, Trust and User-Centric Services in the Cloud)

Time: 10:00 am SGT

Speakers: Craig Scoon, University of Waikato
